Minitran Company Announcement

Effective from the 27th August Andrew Garfield has acquired Steve Minns 50% shareholding in Minitran Ltd and now has a 100% shareholding in the company. Steve has resigned as a director of Minitran and will be leaving on Friday 28th August.

Having been co-founder of Minitran and put 26 years into building the business I am sure that everyone will join me in wishing Steve well. Steve has been considering leaving for some time so that he can move into other areas of interest and as we need to make plans to take the business forward it was agreed that this was the right time.

There will be a further statement next week regarding our plans for the business.
